

Ministry Team

TOM AND LINDA LANGE

Married 26 years, living in Mt. Aukum, Linda is an author, teacher, minister, TV and Radio host, President and Founder of Life Application Ministries since 1996. Having been healed from 30 years of anxiety and panic attacks, shares her restoration story with others, equipping them to find their freedom from whatever ails them, emotionally, physically, spiritually or relational. Ordained in 2003, now helps thousands world-wide recover themselves from the snare of the devil (2 Timothy 2:24-26). Tom has been instrumental in their ministry through his discernment, support, encouragement and unconditional love. Co-authored many of the books offered through this ministry and continues ministering to the biker community today. Tom's motto is: "You are free to be" which jump started LAM! (John 8:32)

KATIE AGUIERRE

For the past 25 years Katie has been teaching and speaking on various health topics while reaching out to those in need through "Operation Warmth" providing sleeping bags and tents. Since 1994 she has been a Health Minister.

She and her husband founded "Healing Acres" which is dedicated to helping people prevent or overcome sickness and dis-ease so they may fulfill God's purpose in their lives. Gerson therapy certified, life coach and minister. LAM Board member. Resides in Sutter Creek.

While on her way to train for equestrian competition for the 1972 Olympics, she was blinded in a car accident at age 16. Her story of amazing grace can inspire many. Her love for the Lord has kept her strong in the faith. She has accomplished much in her life from being a business owner to marrying and raising children. She is a LAM board advisor and Director of "Gold Country Pantry" a homeless outreach in the foothills. Resides in Rancho Cordova.

LISA VOSE

TERESHA LEE

Recording artist, inspirational speaker and writer. Her passion is to share God's love because from her own personal experience, this was when she began seeing her life being transformed into what God designed her to be.

For years she floundered in her Christian walk because she didn't understand God's perfect love and that He had a special purpose for her life. But finally, once she was open to receive these truths, her life was changed forever! Now it is her passion to empower and teach others the truth that God showed her, so others can walk in the fullness and victory in the Lord. Resides in Folsom with her husband Dave.

STEVE KRIESHOK

Director of Grace Street Ministries, a ministry for adult survivors of childhood abuse, particularly male, helping many find freedom. He is in the process of setting up a lay counseling/life coach center in Amador County with a desire to help in the ministry of reconciliation. Resides in Sutter Creek.

*W*e overcome the devil by the blood of the Lamb
