

I was a Christian for almost 20 years when I realized how much I had been in lack. I knew I was saved, I knew I was going to heaven, but I wasn't experiencing the blessings that were spoken about in the Word of God. I just thought that this was my life, and it's as good as it was going to get!

I had suffered with anxiety, phobias, stress and panic attacks from an early age. When I became a Christian at 21, I thought I left all that behind me, only to discover I brought all that "junk" into my Christian life. Right there I was condemned, not understanding why I still had these problems even though I was a Christian. After all, I had been teaching Bible study, I was on worship teams and in the choir, I read my Bible, and was faithful to church attendance. By Jesus' stripes I am healed. So what was my problem?

Into my 18th year of Christianity, I found my answer. My problem was me! I had no idea that I was preventing the move of God in my life. Jeremiah 5:25 says, "Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you." I had withheld good things because of my sins and iniquities. Yes, we are forgiven of our sins; that was done over 2000 years ago, but it's our job to "believe" our sins are forgiven and stay clean before Him in our heart. I needed to learn how to apply this truth to my life. I needed to walk in love and forgiveness every day, not just for others but for myself as well.

What did the Lord show me? To sum it up—He showed me that because I wasn't receiving His love for me, I was in fear and fear prevented me from believing God. This resulted in the life I was living! Fear prevents us from experiencing all the wonderful things God has in store for us. It all started there, but didn't end there, because then I had to begin facing every area of my life that wasn't filled with love.

I didn't know that fear was a result of the lack of love in my life and I didn't know that unforgiveness and unbelief opened the door for more fear to enter.

The Bible says that perfect love casts out all fear and torment (1 John 4:18). I realized I lacked greatly in receiving this kind of love. Once I discovered this and learned how to receive God's perfect love for me, my life dramatically changed.

Today, I am phobia, stress and anxiety free! I'm experiencing patience, peace and joy. I learned how to take my life back and now teach others to do the same. Hundreds have found freedom, and what God does for one He will do for another— and yes, even You!

This healing through God's love has been the focus point of this ministry. As we come into intimacy with Him, it will impact every area of our lives, regardless of your dis-eases.
